

Applications for the Annual MOVE award 2011

Annual MOVE Award 2011: the Annual MOVE Award will be presented to a PhD student at the 3rd Annual MOVE Research Meeting on September 28th for the best publication during the past year. The award consists of a certificate and €1000 to cover travel costs to an international scientific meeting of choice.

The Application must include:

- Nomination by PhD student him/herself
- Motivation letter by supervisor

Criteria:

- First authorship (by applicant) of peer reviewed key publication in 2010
- Publication in a journal within the top 10% of the research field, or, if for some reason the paper has been published in a journal in a different research field, the given journal should have an impact factor higher than the mean impact factor of the top 10% of the actual research field
- The candidate should be present at the annual MOVE Research Meeting

Review:

- The MOVE Research Committee reviews all submissions, and provides advice to the MOVE Directory Board who will make the final decision on the winner.

Please send your application to: moveoffice.fbw@vu.nl

The final deadline for application is July 15th, 2011
