

Program

The perinatal brain and motor development, the benefit of follow-up studies

Venue: Stoa-chamber VU

Registration	09.15	Coffee and tea
Opening	09.50	Prof. J.I.P. de Vries, MD, PhD, chairman
	10.00	The imaging of the neonatal brain G. van Wezel-Meijler, MD, PhD, neonatologist, LUMC
	10.30	The imaging of the fetal brain L.R. Pistorius, MD, PhD, gynaecologist, UMC Utrecht
Coffee	11.00	Coffee
	11.30	Neonatal stroke and asphyxia. What can we learn from placental examination? P.G.J. Nikkels, MD, PhD, pathologist, UMC Utrecht
	12.00	Assessment of the quality of general movements: an update Prof. M. Hadders-Algra, MD, PhD, neurologist, UMC Groningen
Lunch	12.30	Lunch
	13.30	Challenges of the obstetric community to Tygerberg Hospital Prof. H.J. Odendaal, MD, PhD, gynaecologist, Cape Town
	14.00	Outcome of very low birth weight infants, related to management N. van Zijl, MB, ChB, Cape Town
Closure	14.30	Prof. J.I.P. de Vries, MD, PhD
Tea	14.40	Tea
	15.45	PhD Ceremony Fetal brain imaging in pregnancies at risk for preterm birth F.M.F. Rosier-van Dunné Venue: Auditorium
	16.30	Reception

✂

This symposium takes place on Wednesday the 6th of October 2010.

You are cordially invited to attend this conference. Registration fee: free.

Accreditation NVOG: 3. Accreditation NVK: 4. Accreditation BEN: 4.

The Stoa-chamber and the auditorium are located in the main building of the Vrije Universiteit, De Boelelaan 1105, Amsterdam. After entry both locations are indicated.

Registration before the 23rd of September by post or by e-mail: dl.vandermast@vumc.nl

Name: .....

Address: .....

Postal code and city: .....

BIG-registration number: .....

Yes, I will attend the symposium